

The way that the Indiana no call law is written is just as it should be. No calls unless we want them. We do not need the relaxed version from the federal level over riding our Indiana Law.